Saturday's Games—Hodges Field.
Kelsey Wheel vs. Stratton-Warrens.
2 p.m.
Union and Planters vs. Ploughs. 4 p.m.

The fate of the Union and Planters Bank team to participate in the finals for the city championship hangs in the balance pending the outcome of their game Saturday against the Ploughs. The schedule of the amateur championship series calls for a double-header at Hodges field Saturday afternoon. In the opening contest the Kelsey Wheels team meets the Stratton-Warrens. The Kelseys have been going poorly in the series so far and are anxious to make a good showing during the remainder of the series. The Strattons, on the other hand, are anxious to hold to the fourth place they have and will put up their strongest lineup Saturday to bring home victory in the first contest.

U. and P. vs. Ploughs.
The real banner game of the afternoon comes in the second contest when the Union and Planters team meets the Ploughs. Should the Union and Planters defeat the Ploughs in the last contest Saturday they are assured of going into the last leg of the series, which will take place Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 12 and 13. The Ploughs are confident of victory in this contest also, and both clubs will likely need its best club on the field. It is likely that Arnold will fling for the Ploughs in the Sunday game, reserving Sherrill for the Sunday game against the Kelseys. Should the Planters team lose to the Ploughs they still have another chance to enter the finals if they defeat the Kelseys Sunday. However, this is considering the unusual capability of Willie Harris who flings for the Kelseys and has to now be going in his top form. The games at Hodges field Saturday will go nine innings each, starting at 2 and 4 p.m., respectively. A small admission is charged at the gate to defray cost of sending the Memphis amateur champions to St. Louis. Hodges field is located but two blocks east and one block north of Russell park.

MAY BAR NEGRO BOXERS.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—The police department today began an investigation of the bout here between Harry Wills and Sam McVey, negro heavyweights, which was stopped by the referee, who said the men were stalling. James T. Corcoran, director of public safety, said if the investigation bears out the belief of the referee, the two fighters will be barred from Philadelphia rings. The investigation has the approval of George Pawling, promoter of the bout.

BARONS WIN AGAIN.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 10.—Birmingham hit Fulton and Lukonovic hard yesterday and the Barons won the final game of the series 4 to 2, making it three out of four for the series.

The game was well played, all runs being cleanly earned. Four clean drives and a sacrifice netted the Barons two runs in the first inning. Had the field not been heavy and muggy, the Barons might have scored more runs, for they hit the ball hard and often.

QUIMET REPELS FOREIGN INVADER

ROSLYN, N. Y., Sept. 10.—The last foreign invader seeking this year's amateur golf championship of the United States was repelled yesterday and the new champion is certain to be an American. Francis Ouimet, of Boston, again saved his country's honor in golf. In 1912 he first came into prominence by defeating the English professional, Vardon and Ray, for the American open title. Yesterday he eliminated Thomas Armour, of Scotland, holder of the French amateur championship, 6 and 4.

Armour was the last of four golfers from Great Britain seeking the title to remain in the tournament. He was the only one of the four to qualify. The only other foreign invader to qualify, C. P. Grier, the Canadian champion, succumbed in the first round.

The South was victorious yesterday in a contest with the North, when Bob Jones, the youthful wizard from Atlanta, defeated the young Massachusetts champion, F. J. Wright, Jr., 22 years old, 6 to 4. Today the sectional rivalry will be continued, for the draw puts Jones against Ouimet. They have never met before in an important match.

The other semifinalists are Chick Evans, of Chicago, and Edward P. Allen, of Milwaukee. Yesterday Evans defeated W. C. Fownes, Jr., of Pittsburgh, also a former amateur champion, by 7 and 6. Allen won by 2 and 1 from J. Wood Platt, of Philadelphia, who dethroned Champion S. Davidson Heron yesterday and defeated Ouimet at Okmunt last year.

The St. Louis Cardinals have a new catcher, a youngster named Heving, who hails from Battle Creek of the Michigan-Ontario league. Scout Fred Hunter dug him up and says he is going to be a real big leaguer when he gets the hang of things. This is Heving's second year in professional baseball.

Bing Miller And Tony Brottem Are Sold To Pirates

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 10.—A telegram from R. G. Allen, president of the Little Rock club of the Southern association, last night announced the sale of Outfielder "Bing" Miller and Catcher Tony Brottem, to Pittsburgh.

Two players previously had been sold to Washington, but the deal later was called off by the local club. Miller holds the league's home run record, and yesterday ran his string up to 12. Both will report at the close of the Southern association season, unless Little Rock wins the Southern association pennant, in which case they will play in the series against Fort Worth.

GAMBLERS BLAMED FOR RUTH CANARD

CINCINNATI, Sept. 10.—Commenting on the rumor that "Babe" Ruth and other members of the Yankee team had been injured, Col. Huston, part owner of the New York Yankees, while here yesterday, said he was informed by that it was believed the "sure thing" gamblers started the story. "I have facts on which to base any charges," Col. Huston said, "but one can understand the possibilities of gamblers getting unfair odds through just such tricks. This is something baseball authorities have no way of stopping."

RALEIGH, N. SENATORS GET TWO.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 10.—Washington defeated St. Louis twice yesterday, 6 to 3 and 2 to 1. The Senators won the first game by a rally in the twelfth when they scored three runs on two singles, a base on balls, Severide's error and a double by Ellerbe. Shaw held the locals to five hits in the second game, which Roth's home run decided in the ninth.
